

Feel the multi-cultural encounters – The Picture Book Square

Enjoy reading over 700 picture books from Japan and other countries!

Through the picture books, why don't we experience the multi-cultural encounters and communicate with others?

Date: Saturday, October 17 and Sunday, October 18, 2015
Opening hours: 11:00 ~ 16:00 (17th), 11:00 ~ 15:30 (18th)
Place: 5th floor, Osaka Municipal Central Library (Osaka-shi Chuo Toshokan)
4-3-2, Kita-Horie, Nishi-ku, Osaka-shi
(Adjacent to the exit no. 7, Nishi-Nagahori station on the subway Sennichimae and Nagahori-tsurumiryokuchi lines.)

Entrance fee: Free of charge

* No reservation required. You may come at anytime during the opening hours at your convenience.

Programs:

Saturday, October 17 Starts at 14:00 'Story-telling with multi-languages' *
Sunday, October 18 Starts at 13:30 Workshop 'Feel Korea with the stories and music'

* You may also find the 'Write Your Name in Other Languages' counter, multilingual DAISY picture book demonstration and multicultural quiz during the two days.

*We will read picture books and tell a story illustrated with picture cards.

It will be an excellent opportunity for people from overseas to enjoy story-telling in their native languages; the Japanese people can also enjoy discovering various languages and cultures.
